

How much the estimate for a specific region is below or above the European pooled estimate of the proportion of population at risk of death due to COVID-19

